I think that the attitude they have formally taken in reference to their own peculiar interests, simply as ordinary citizens of the State, is an attitude well worthy of imitation among all classes of our countrymen. I feel that they for that very reason should receive special consideration, not an unfair consideration as against any other group of men, of course, but from the great interests with which they deal, because of the fact that they form such a large body and because of the fact that they have as a rule performed their duties of citizenship with such intelligence, with so sharp an eye to their own interests and so patriotic a regard for the interests of the community, for these reasons they have earned the right to receive careful and full consideration of every proposition they I remember in New-York when I administering the Police Department there that on a number of occasions some of the best advice I got was from consultation with representatives of the engineers' and firemen's associations. I also consulted with the conductors' association, but it happens that I did not have matters that brought me into contact with them quite as much as the others. I think it most important that every public man should try to keep in touch with all the great labor interests of the State, not to favor them improperly, but so that he can find out what they wish, what they need, so that he can meet them half way and give it to them when it is possible to

I appeal to you to stand by us because we stand for a party of justice and fair play; because in this election we stand for civic honesty in the State; because we stand for an untainted judiciary. and because we stand in National matters for the coinage of honest money and for the uphoiding of American flag by upholding the Administration of President McKinley.

BUILT FOR DEMOCRATS.

Mr. Depew then spoke briefly. He said that everybody knew how Roosevelt had chased the Spaniards at Santiago, and now he was chasing the Democrats up Salt River. He was afraid that a little railroad called the Susquehanna and Buffale would take all the business away from the Erie, Central and other big roads after election. He had seen a sign at a station below, saying: "Take to the woods," and he believed that the Democrats would just

Mr. McDonough was the next speaker. He said that the shops, mills and factories and workmen of the State all evidenced the return of prosperity. The mills at Troy and Cohoes are running on overtime. The great shops at West Albany were busier than they had been for years. The returns to the Labor Bureau showed that whereas in March, 1897, one out of every four men in all the labor unions of the State was idle during the whole winter, now only one out of every sixteen was reported idle for the quarter ended on June 30, 1898, while the earnings had increased largely.

Instead of importing manufactured goods, the American people were making them at home and selling them abroad. They were selling steel rails to India, steel plates for ships to Belfast, door sashes and blinds to Scotland, locomotives to China and Japan, wagons to Africa, glass made at Corning to all Europe, and were building battle-ships for Russia. John Proctor Clarke and "Buck" Taylor both spoke.

TALK ON THE RAINES LAW.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Oct. 25.-At Addison about fifteen hundred people gathered at the station and listened attentively to the speech of Colonel Roosevelt. Besides brief remarks upon honesty of purpose in State and National policies, he spoke of the Raines Liquor Tax

SPEECHES AT CAMERON.

At Cameron, Steuben County, a large crowd had assembled, and Colonel Roosevelt was introduced by Mr. Depew, who said:

Here is the man whom you can call on at the State Capitol in Albany next winter. He isn't doing any rough riding at present, but he's doing

Colonel Roosevelt talked on the support of National issues in the same line as he had at other stations. At Canisteo he spoke to about three hundred people, appealing to them to stand for hundred people, appealing to them to stand for honest currency and honest administration of public affairs in the State.

Mr. Depew spoke at greater length. He said that two years ago he had visited this place. Then all the farmers who raised sheep were poor or oankrupt, and because of the Wilson bill not a sheep in the country dared look an honest man in the face. Now things were changed, and he asked that the party changing them be supported by the vote of the State.

At Hornelisville it was decided to stop twenty-five instead of fifteen minutes. A flat car had been provided as a platform, and the special train was backed up against it. Colonel Roosevelt, Mr. Depew and John T. McDonough stepped on it and addressed the crowd.

Buffalo, Oct. 25.—Short stops were made at Castile and Silver Sorings. At Waisaw and Depew there were large crowds and addresses were made. Buffalo was reached at 4:30 o'clock.

A MEETING IN ORCHARD-ST.

There will be a mass-meeting under the auspices of the Republican Club at New-Prospect Hall, 48 Orchard-st., on Thursday evening. Ex-Mayor William L. Strong will preside. Among the speak-ers will be ex-Police Commissioner Moss, C. H. Trent and Assemblyman Adler.

NEW-JERSEY CITIZEN LOSES HIS VOTE. Justice Pryor, in the Supreme Court yesterday, refused an application made on behalf of Abraham compel the inspectors of election in the Second Election District of the VIIIth Assembly District to place his name on the roll of voters. Hyman to place his name on the roll of voters. Hyman applied to be registered on Saturday last, and based his claim to vote en the fact that he had been naturalized in the State of New-Jersey. He could not produce his certificate of naturalization, but said he had voted in the same district last year. The inspectors made a search and could not find his name on last year's list of voters.

Justice Pryor denied the application for the writ.

LIONIZED IN BUFFALO.

ROOSEVELT RECEIVED WITH MARKED FAVOR BY VAST CROWDS.

HE SPOKE LAST NIGHT AT FOUR MEETINGS AND TALKED PLAINLY ABOUT THE CANAL QUESTION.

Buffalo, Oct. 25 .- The greatest reception accorded to Colonel Roosevelt since his Carnegie Hall meeting, in New-York, occurred in Buffalo this evening. When the Roosevelt party arrived an immense concourse was waiting, and the streets from the Eric Railroad station to the hotel were lined with enthusiastic crowds. The candidate and his party were shown to rooms in the hotel, but they found they could not remain there, and were compelled to go to the parlors, where the general public was received for about an hour.

At 7:15 o'clock in the evening Colonel Roosevelt, escorted by one hundred mounted men dressed as Rough Riders and the Roosevelt-Woodruff Wheel Club, left the hotel and started over to the East Side, where three meetings had been arranged. One of these meetings was distinctively a gathering of Polish citizens and one an assemblage of Germans. The other speakers besides Roosevelt at these meetings were Abraham Gruber, John Proctor Clark and John T. McDonough, candidate for Secretary of State.

After attending these meetings and speaking at all of them Colonel Roosevelt was driven to Music Hall, where the great meeting of the night had been arranged. The hall, which is the largest auditorium in Western New-York, was crowded to the doors. The chairman was George Urban, jr. Shortly after 8 o'clock, with a few preliminary remarks, he introduced Chauncey M. Depew. Mr. Depew was received with tremendous applause

MR. DEPEW'S SPEECH.

Mr. Depew introduced his speech by saying that it was his business to hold the fort until Colonel Roosevelt arrived. After bringing the immense audience up to a high pitch of enthusiasm he spoke of the importance of voting for Republican Congressmen. Continuing, he said that he could testify to the prosperity of the country from the point of view of a railroad man. Before McKinley's election freight was scarce and crews had to be laid off. "To-tay we cannot get cars enough to carry it or engines enough to haul it."

The war with Spain was not a war of aggression, but a war to free the people of Cuba from an oppression that had existed for three hundred years. "As to the Filipinor," he said, "we are going to make them American citizens." Referring to Andrew Carnegie's interview on the Philippines, he said Mr. Carnegle thought the only thing to do was to "scuttle and run." "I believe in assuming the responsibility in the spirit of Bunker Hill." In conclusion Mr. Depew pald a glowing tribute to Colonel Roosevelt's war record, and in referring to his "round robin" said it was the means of bringing back the sick soldiers.

Following Mr. Depew, Judge W. M. K. Olcott addressed the audience in a forcible and pointed

HOT SHOT ON THE CANAL ISSUE. Colonel Roosevelt finally appeared, and received a tremendous greeting when introduced by the chairman. Despite the fact that he had spoken at twelve meetings during the day and at three just preceding the one at Music Hall, he talked at length in a lucid style. Part of what he said follows: If you want to know the way that Republicans act when confronted with charges of mismanagement, look at the canal affair. Some few years ago a Republican Senator in the State Senate tried to have gross mismanagement of the canals investigated, but a Democratic presiding officer kept the Senate in deadlock until the matter was dropped. This year a cry of fraud was raised, and the Republican party, through its Republican Governor at once began and completed an investigation. All that I have to go on is the report of the Commission appointed by Governor Black, which report is in itself the best possible testimony that the ad-ministration of the State sought only the closest scrutiny into the management of the canals and the widest publicity for the results of that scrutiny.

My opponents can say no more than I say-that I the Democratic party that they will repeal the present excise law. You know if they do that they bottom; that wherever there has been mismanagement or faulty system this shall be corrected if it is a matter of administration, and laid before the Legislature if it is a matter for legislation, and that wherever there has been misconduct or corruption it shall be punished, no matter who the in-I do not think it possible to get an excise law that will be satisfactory everywhere. There are two or three principles which I should like to see the dividual may be. They cannot say more than this, and who do you think will keep the word best, myself or Tammany?

You know well that every honest official whose office is to be investigated hopes for my election and that every dishonest official hopes for my defeat, because he knows that he would have some chance to save his head where an investigation would be conducted only for political purposes, to try to make party capital, and that he would have no chance at all where the investigation would be conducted as I should conduct it.

A FRIEND OF THE SOLDIERS.

Speaking on the subject of the New-York volunteers, Colonel Roosevelt said:

I believe the National Guard can be improved. I was three years in the National Guard, and during this summer I saw some service in actual warfare I am the greatest believer in the National Guard. and I should take in it no perfunctory interest, but I should treat it as it deserves to be treated, as one of the most important interests of the State: for upon its efficiency may depend not only the welfare the event of war. I shall try to see not only that National Guard is well armed and well equipped, not only that it is managed on the best system, but also that its officers are the very best to be had. I do not believe that the National Guard should in any way be mixed up in politics. and all appointments I have to make to it shall be of the Guard and the best interests of the people Here again I ask you to take my past performnce as a warrant for my present promise

I shall apply to the management of the National to the management of the volunteer soldiery of this State the principles I applied in face of the enemy. I strove to see that they were proper medical attendance, and, in short, were cared for in every way. I saw that they reached the highest point of soldierly proficiency in the performance of their duties, and in making appointments and promotions among the officers and non-commissioned officers nike I paid heed but to two things, merit and public interests.

DISHONEST AND SNEAKING.

The Colonel lashed his opponents for their cowardice and inconsistency, saying:

The Democratic party! A Democrat! Where and what are they? Is it the party of Bryan or Palmer or Hill? Who can tell. On the one side of Mr Hill, now recognized as a leader, are the silver plank supporters of the Chicago Convention. the other side, with averted faces from both Hill and the Chicago piatform people, is the respectable element, headed by Palmer and standing for a decent financial system. In the middle, with a foot ready to turn to either side, is Hill, standing for nothing, representing nothing. On the fence, as the procession passes, is Tammany, beckening to assist it in debauching the State as they have de-

Do not let them dodge, for that is a little meaner than it is to be on the wrong side. Let them say whether they are for gold or sliver. They prattle about dishonesty in the canals. If I am elected Governor I will see that no dishonesty is allowed and if any man is dishonest or has been dishonest assuredly I will punish him, no matter what per sonal or political influence he may have. They talk about honest canals, but they do not dare to raise their voices about either honest or dishonest money. DEMOCRATS OF OTHER STATES SEEM TO DIS-AGREE WITH THOSE OF NEW-YORK. The Denocrats in this State say that questions of National moment have no place in the present State campaign, and that their candidates, both for State offices and for Congress, need pay no attention to the free silver question or the platform adopted by the Democratic party at the Chicago Convention in 1895. The Democrats of most of the other States who have held State conventions this year do not agree with the so-called Democrats of New-York, as the following table of their political declarations upon the currency question (taken from "Money") shows:

HAS SEEN THE ERROR OF HIS WAY. MYLES STANDISH, FORMERLY A BACON SUP-PORTER, NOW COMES OUT FOR COLONEL ROCSEVELT.

Myles Standish, a lineal descendant of old Captain Miles Standish, was an ardent supporter of Seth Low in the Mayoralty campaign of last year. He was prominent in the nomination of Colonel upon Colonel Roosevelt's declination became a sup-porter of Mr. Bacon. Mr. Standish yesterday, how-ever, announced that he intended to support Colonel Roosevelt and the jentire Republican ticket. "This is not a year," he said, "for independent movements, and I believe that all independents should raily to the support of Colonel Roosevelt, that his election may be assured."

MR. QUIGG'S VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN.

Congressman Quigg already has the Democrats in the XIVth Congress District on the defensive He is forcing the fighting in every election district in the Congress district. On Saturday a Tammany district leader from one of the principal Assembly districts in the XIVth Congress District was heard in Tammany Hall that it would be impos sible to defeat Quigg. Mr. Quigg's campaign of a large number of small meetings is generally approved. Personal appeals by letter have produced an avalanche of mail. The replies to his letters come from all classes of people. In each of these letters the writer sends from one to fifty names of friends to whom he volunteers to speak. Most of the names are those of Democrats, and Mr. Quigg will undoubtedly obtain through this means of canvassing several thousand Democratic votes.

Mr. Quigg spoke last night at Fifty-fourth-st. and Eleventh-ave., in the XVIIth Assembly Dis-Mr. Quigg spose has have and Eleventh-ave. in the XVIIth Assembly District; at Carney's Hall, No. 422 East Seventy-fifthst. in the XXVIIth Assembly District; at No. 176 East Seventy-seventh-st. in the XXVIIIth Assembly District; at a meeting of the Colored Republican Association of that district, and at Beckman Hall, One-hundred-and-forty-second-st. and Eighthave. in the XXIIId Assembly District.

In addition to these meetings, Mr. Quigg's cartiall campaign went on last night in the XVII. Assembly districts, and also in the XXIVIth Assembly districts, and also in the XXIVIth, XXVIIth and XXVIIIth Assembly districts, on the East Side, making about ten meetings in the Congress district. The number of meetings to be held will be increased nightly. Mr. Chanler, Mr. Quigg's opponent, continues to dodge the sible issue, and Sound Money Democrata, who might have voted for him had he not given out the interview in which he said that he did not intend to "allerate any votes" by discussing the subject, are in large numbers piedging themselves to support Mr. Quigg.

Mr. Quigg is talking along sound-money lines and is meeting with much encouragement.

CROKER'S LATEST SHRIEK.

MESSRS. ROOT AND COCKRAN IGNORE HIS OUTBREAK.

LEADERS OF THE MOVEMENT FOR A FREE JU DICIARY FEEL THAT THE MORE THE BOSS TALKS THE BETTER FOR THE GOOD CAUSE.

Richard Croker's personal attack upon Elihu Root and his assault generally upon the movement to elect Justice Daly and preserve the independence of the judiciary appear to have fallen supremely flat. Mr. Croker's statement has not wrought his opponents up to the redho pitch he expected. Before he spoke his "little piece" to the Tammany Executive Committee or Monday Mr. Croker led his friends to believe that he had something ready to spring which would silence in a trice the leaders in the effort to maintain a free bench., But it happened yesterday that nobody against whom Mr. Croker hurled his thunder could be induced to regard it with any serious consideration. Elihu Root, for instance, who was the special object of Mr. Croker's onslaught, refused to make answer to the extent of even a single word. To a Tribune re porter who saw him at his office, No. 32 Liberty st., he said that not only had he nothing to say in reply to Mr. Croker, but that he purposed paying no attention whatever to anything the sioners at Paris, have signed a call for a meeting to be held on Friday night at Carnegle Hall in W. Bourke Cockran, who was also specifically attacked by Mr. Croker, and Joseph H. Choate and James C. Carter declined to comment in any way upon Croker's latest outburst. Similarly at Republican headquarters the same disposition was manifested to treat Mr. Croker with silent contempt. The Republican leaders, in fact, said yesterday that nothing pleased them more than an ebu'llent effusion from Mr. Croker. The more Mr. Croker makes public statements the more fuel he is adding to the conflagration that is likely to incinerate him and his candidate on November 8. Even among his own followers Mr. Croker is looked upon as acting indiscreetly in not adhering to his old principle of "laying low," so as not to draw the enemy's fire. In the opinion of his friends Mr. Croker is talking too much, and is endeavoring to cover up a bad blunder by trying to divert the public mind from the real issue of the judiciary contest.

Tammany leader might give forth.

The Executive Committee appointed by the Carnegie Hall Committee of One Hundred on Monday met yesterday afternoon in the office of Colonel Robert Grier Monroe, No. 15 Wall-st. In addition to Colonel Monroe, there were present John D. Kernan, Oliver P. Buel, Anson G. McCook, Edward J. McGuire, Paul D. Cravath and Gibson Putzel, who constitute the Executive Committee, and James C. Carter and Elihu Root. Although chosen only late on Monday, the committee secured downtown and uptown quarters early vesterday morning. In the daytime the committee will conduct its campaign at No. 100 Broadway. The rooms which have been taken in this building are on the ground floor and will accommodate two hundred persons. The quarters will remain open every day from now on until the election, and between 4 and 6 o'clock every afternoon it is proposed to hold meetings which will be addressed in turn by prominent lawyers and other citizens who are anxious that the attempt to tamper with the judiciary shall not succeed.

Quarters have also been rented in the Gilsey House, where the committee will continue their work in the evening. In fact, in the time that now remains the Executive Committee, with the help of the 3,600 and more lawyers who signed the Bar Association's petition, will carry on a campaign of so vigorous a nature that it cannot help having its effect on the voters of the metropolis. "It is no longer a question," Colonel Monroe said yesterday, "of whether we shall have enough men to do the work that is to be done, but simply whether the work can be sufficiently systematized in two weeks to reach every part of the city. That is the problem, and the only one. We intend to do all that men can do to solve it in the most satisfactory manner. We shall from now on give ourselves no rest in bringing the great issue squarely and sharply home to every voter."

The committee at its meeting yesterday detral Palace on November 3. Invitations have been issued to speakers of acknowledged reputation, and it is expected that the gathering will be as successful as that held in the Carne-gie Music Hall. Jacob H. Schiff was appointed gle Music Hall, Jacob H. Schiff was appointed treasurer of the organization, and will be assisted by a Finance Committee which will be selected to-day. The following Committee on Printing and Publication was appointed to carry on an educational campaign: William H. Raud, jr., Charles E. Rushmore, Samuel H. Ordway, Lewis L. Delafield, Edward B. Whitney and Calvin Tomkins. The downtown headquarters of the committee will be in charge of John A.

Colonel Monroe yesterday received the following letter from R. Fulton Cutting, explaining the attitude of the Citizens Union in regard to the candidature of Justice Daly:

"My Dear Sir: I beg to offer you the services of the Citizens Union organization in the effort to conduct a successful campaign for the election of Messrs. Daly and Cohen. The Union has a reliable committee in every district in the Borough of Manhaitan. It can supply, for a The Union very moderate sum, responsible men as watchers of the polls, many of whom had experience in the Low campaign. We can provide synopses of the election law similar to those of the in-closed sample, for the information of watchers, closed sample, for the information of watchers, and, if you so desire, we will relinquish to your committee until Election Day our organizing agent, Mr. James Parsons, He has, I believe, done considerable work for the National Democracy in the past, and we have found him very efficient. Very truly yours,

he said in his speech before the Tammany Hall Executive Committee. He wouldn't say just what he meant by declaring that Justice Daly what he meant by declaring that Justice Daly was not an upright Judge, and he would add nothing about the accusation that W. Bourke Cockran left the Democratic party for the good of the party. Mr. Croker seemed to be delighted with his speech. There was a great deal of talk about this self-same speech yesterday, and every one didn't take the same cheerful view that Mr. Croker did. Many of the Democratic leaders feel that Mr. Croker is making a great mistake in keeping the trouble over Justice Daly stirred up. They say that the issue about a pure judiciary is one that places Mr. Croker in anything but a strong position, and he seems a pure judiciary is one that places Mr. Croker in anything but a strong position, and he seems determined to keep that to the fore. These leaders talk in low tones, and they said they didn't dare tell Croker. A few years ago, they said, any Democrat could go to Richard Croker and state his views, but now the boss will listen to no one. He has shunted to the side such men as Hugh J. Grant, ex-Mayor Gilroy, ex-Governor Flower and W. Bourke Cockran, and he is surrounded in a new set of advisers Carroll, "Larry" Delmour and others of like James C. Carter, chairman of the Committee of One Hundred, last evening issued for the committee the following circular:

This committee has been organized and is pre-This committee has been organized and is prepared to conduct a campaign to uphold the independence of the judiciary. Thirty-five hundred members of the bar of this county respectfully petitioned the nominating conventions of the two great parties to act upon the principle that judges whose terms are expiring and who have demonstrated their fitness by their conduct on the bench should be renominated, and that, in respect to new candidates, those only should be selected whose established character furnished an assurance to the public of competency and integrity. The gravity of the issue presented by this flagrant fully appreciated by the bar of New-York. They cannot discharge the duties they owe to the public and obtain justice for their clients if the judges

COUNTY CHAIRMEN SEE M'CARREN. THEY DOLSTER UP HIS HOPES, AND HE SAYS HE IS GREATLY ENCOURAGED. Senator McCarren spent the greater part of the day yesterday in consultation with the county chairmen from up the State. Up-State leaders have been giving the headquarters in the Hoffman House the go-by, but by special invitation a fair number was on hand yesterday. As a result of the conferences of the day. Mr. McCarren said he felt much encouraged. He added that nothing had been done aside from discussing routine matters, but that each of the visitors had reported a bright outlook for his section of the country. Some asserted Democratic majorities would be increased. and others said that the Republican majorities would be cut down. As the county chairmen filed out they anxiously inquired when they should comback. They will reappear next on what is known as "dough day," when the money for election expenses will be distributed. Richard Croker has not yet designated that day, but he says it will be toward the end of next week. It is said that the toward the end of next week. It is said that the coffers at headquarters are overflowing, and that the allotment will be liberal.

George W. Batten, candidate for Secretary of State, was one of the callers upon Senator McGfren yesterday. He said that the visit of Judge Van Wyck up the State had set things booming, and predicted large Democratic gains in Rochester and Buffalo. Another caller was Senator "Tim" Sullivan, and he had a wall about the actions of Superintendent McCullagh. Mr. McCullagh has put a stop to the colonizing in Sullivan's district, and the latter doesn't take kindly to it. Sullivan says that McCullagh has gone clear crazy, and that an honest voter can't get a chance in his district.

DISMISSED BY THE GRAND JURY. ACTION TAKEN ON THE FIRST OF THE REGISTRA

TION COMPLAINTS.

The Grand Jury acted yesterday on the first of the registration cases brought before that body by Superintendent McCullagh's deputies. The case acted on was that of Deputy-Superintendent Joseph J. Mendel, who charged John Hetherington, of No. 403 East Seventy-ninth-st., with having illegally registered in the Eleventh Election District of the XXVIIIth Assembly District on October 15. Evi-dence was heard, and the complaint was dismissed District-Attorney Gardiner was elated over the dismissal of the case and last night showed a statement of the Attorney-General of the State, put forward by Secretary of State Palmer, holding that the question of a man's place of residence was largely a matter of intent. A person, the decision said, had a right to register, even if temporarily investigating it.
